Academic Quarter System
Any three quarters are considered an academic year. The standard academic year is comprised of Fall (October), Winter (January) and Spring (March) quarters. There is a summer intersession in June and additional summer quarter commencing in July. See Academic Calendar for details.
Online Course Fee
Students enrolling in a Virtual Campus Online course will be charged an online course fee in addition to the tuition charge for the course. The Online course fee includes Virtual Campus access, online library, 24/7 technical support, and all course materials, which may include e-books, textbooks, and/or software. The Online course fee is as follows:
Undergraduate fee per course	£60
Graduate fee per course	£85
Graduation Fee
A non-refundable graduation fee (currently £80, subject to change) will be billed to students earning a degree, during the last quarter of their program. Graduation Fee includes administrative costs associated with graduation activities (ceremony, diploma, etc.).
Part-time
Students taking less than 12 credit hours per quarter will be charged the Part-time tuition rate, subject to student visa regulations.
Academic Overload
Undergraduate students taking more than 13.5 credit hours per quarter will be charged the Academic overload tuition rate. Academic overloads are subject to prior approval by the Program Dean.
Supplies
Students are responsible for providing materials and supplies required for classes. Although costs of supplies vary according to the program of study, students should plan on an average of £150 per quarter for basic art, design and/or drafting supplies. Advanced classes require additional supplies, and the costs are determined by the student's choice of projects.

Students may earn 4.5 hours of academic credit upon satisfactory completion of requirements set by the instructor.

Registration for Classes

AIU London is committed to ensuring that students are able to register for classes in a timely manner. To this end the following regulations governing registration have been put in place.

Stage 1 – Registration

Students in good academic, immigration and financial standing will be automatically registered by the Academic Advisors according to their degree progress as soon as registration opens.

Payment deadline: 5 pm last working day before classes begin.

Students who are registered for classes but fail to pay by the above deadline, will be charged Late Payment fee of £500 on the first day of term.

Failure to make final payment or payment arrangements with Finance by 5 pm of the last working day before classes begin will result in students being dropped from all classes, not allowed to resume their studies that term and being withdrawn from school.

Stage 2 – Registration

Students who failed to register in stage 1 due to immigration or pending financial issues must address those before the Academic Advisors can help them sign up for classes.

Payment deadline: 5 pm last working day before classes begin.

Students who are registered for classes but fail to pay by the above deadline, will be charged Late Payment fee of £500 on the first day of term.

Stage 3 – Late Registration

Students who failed to register in stages 1 and 2 due to immigration or pending financial issues must address those and arrange tuition payment in advance before the Academic Advisors can help them sign up for classes.

All students registering in stage 3 will incur £250 Late Registration fee.

Schedule of Tuition, Fees and Expenses

Course Overload

- The normal academic load for undergraduate is 13.5 credit hours and for graduate programs is 18 credits hours per term
- Registering for additional classes is available to those students considered to be in good academic standing and with the permission of the Program Dean

Notes

1. Students taking less than 15 credit hours during the June five-week Summer intersession will not incur the part-time tuition premium and will be charged on a full-time per-credit-hour basis.
2. The application fee is a one-time fee that may only be waived in certain circumstances. The application fee may only be waived for students who are: re-entering; re-enrolling; enrolling with established articulation or Educational Alliances Center agreements; AIU Alumni; transferring from a CEC-sponsored school; or a CEC employee. Updated on April 19, 2012.
3. The University Catalogue policies and procedures, and terms and conditions in this Tuition and Fee rates, are correct at the time of going to press, and may be subject to change. Students should consult their Academic Advisors and the latest University Catalogue for specific information on any policy.
4. Custom suite of course materials for the Virtual Campus online courses are provided to the student by Words of Wisdom, LLC. At the University's discretion, books may be delivered in an electronic (e-Book) or standard textbook format. Students not wishing to use e-Books are responsible for any additional charges associated with purchasing standard textbooks.
5. The University does not charge for transfer credits.

Fee Status

American InterContinental University London (AIU London) follows the guidance of the United Kingdom government under the (Fees and Awards) Regulations of 1997. Under these regulations, students who are classified as being non-home students may be charged at higher rates than those who are 'home' students.

What is a 'Home' student?

To be classified as a 'home' student, an applicant must fit into one of the ten categories for "home" fees as defined by UK Council for International Student Affairs. Please visit UKCISA website (www.ukcisa.org.uk) for more information.
