Notes

1. Tuition charge and total program cost are based upon total program credits and may vary due to transferred credits, repeated courses or program pacing.
2. Program tuition is charged per credit hour each term throughout the student's program and is charged at the beginning of each term.
3. Tuition charges include a custom suite of course materials that are provided to the student by Words of Wisdom, LLC. At the University's discretion, books may be delivered in an electronic (e-Book) or standard textbook format. Students not wishing to use e-Books are responsible for any additional charges associated with purchasing standard textbooks.
4. For a complete list of specializations available, please see the University Catalog.
5. A non-refundable Graduation Fee will be charged to the student's account during the final term. Please see the Graduation Requirements section of the catalog for more information.
6. The Technology Fee is $125 per term (non-refundable). The Technology Fee covers student access to and maintenance of the following University systems: Student Portal, Virtual Classroom, intelligipath™ adaptive learning platform, e-Book reader, and student email. Veterans may be exempt from the fee. Contact the Financial Aid department for more information.

AIU reserves the right to make changes at any time to the amount of tuition and fees, as set forth in the Enrollment Agreement. Notice of changes will be communicated in a revised catalog, an addendum or supplement to the catalog, or other written format.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund California Residents Only

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency programs attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act or this Division within 30 days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act.

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

AIU cannot guarantee employment or salary. Not all programs available to residents of all states. Find employment rates, financial obligations and other disclosures at www.aiuniv.edu/disclosures or visit the degree program descriptions at www.aiuniv.edu.
